

PRESS RELEASE

Countdown to Christmas

Festivities start early this year with the Countdown to Christmas event in The Broadway, Loughton on Friday 25 November, 3.30pm – 6pm.

The live entertainment will include carols led by students from local schools and Epping Forest College.

There will be free funfair rides for the children and a children's entertainer, festive stalls including hot roast chestnuts and elves will be handing out free mince pies, sweets and fruit.

Santa has also promised to take time from his busy schedule to help town mayor, Councillor Carol Davies switch on the Christmas lights at around 4.15pm!

The event is organised jointly by volunteers from the Broadway Town Centre Partnership and Loughton Town Council.

Note to editor:

For more information contact

Enid K Walsh (Town Clerk) or Lorraine Gibson (Town and Community Development Officer)
Tel: 020 8508 4200

Date: 17 November 2016