

PRESS RELEASE

Armistice Day in Loughton

A sombre and moving Remembrance Service was held on Sunday 10 November 2019 by the war memorial on Kings Green, Loughton to remember.

Hundreds of local residents joined the annual parade, leaving the Royal British Legion Headquarters (Loughton Branch) at Church Hill, the procession included representatives from The Royal British Legion, Churches Together in Loughton, the Air Cadets, Scouts, Guides, Brownies and Rainbows together with Ex-service men, councillors, council staff.

Town Mayor, Councillor Stella Murphy led the tributes on Kings Green for the service and the two minutes silence marking the anniversary of this day in 1918 when the guns finally stopped at the end of the First World War.

Note to editor:

For more information contact
Mark Squire (Town Clerk)

Tel: 020 8508 4200

Date: 12 November 2019

@everythinggeppingforest

@everythinggeppingforest

